

PAPER 3.5 Open Elective

Note: This paper is offered for Students of other Disciplines.

Students of Political Science should take paper offered by other disciplines

OPEN ELECTIVE

NEW SOCIAL MOVEMENTS IN INDIA

Block I:

- Social Movements- meaning, characteristics,
- Difference between “old” and “new” social movements

Block II:

- History of social movements in India
- Interface between national movement and social movements, tribal, peasant struggles.

Block III:

- New social movements: after 1980's conditions for its emergence, nature and characteristics
- Major struggles: Farmers, Dalits and Tribals, LGBT, Peace, and Environmental.

Block IV:

- New Social Movements: Critique of social movements
- Social movements and globalization.

Books for Reference and Reading:

1. Enrique Larana New Social Movements : From Ideology to Identity, Temple University Press, 2009
2. Ghanshyam Shah, Social Movements in India: A Review of Literature, 1990
3. M S A Rao, Social Movements in India: Studies in Peasant, Backward Classes, Sectarian, Tribal and Women's Movements, Manohar Publications, 1984.
4. Raka Ray, Social Movements in India: Poverty, Power and Politics, Oxford University Press, 2006
5. Kenneth Bo Nielson & Alf Genvald Nielson, Social Movements in India: Deepening Democracy, Springer, 2016
6. Andrew Jamison & Ron Eyerman, Social Movements: A Cognitive Approach, Pennsylvania State University Press, 1991.

7. Greg Martin, Understanding Social Movements, Routledge, 2015.
8. Lalitha Sharma, Social Movements in India.
9. Nick Crossley, Making Sense of Social Movements, Open University Press, 2002.
10. Donatella Della Porta & Mario Diani, Social Movements, Blackwell Publishing, 2006.
11. T K Oommen, Social Movements: Issues of Identity, Oxford Publishing, 2010.
12. Bipan Chandra, History of Modern India
13. Mira Kamdar, India in the 21st Century- What Europe needs to know, Oxford, 2018
14. Neera Chandoke, Praveen Priyadarshi, Contemporary India: Economy, Social, Politics, Pearson, 1999.